

TOP REASONS TO SPONSOR & EXHIBIT AT ECS MEETINGS

#1 Solidify and strengthen your brand

Sponsoring events at ECS meetings gives your brand visibility and reinforces your position as an industry leader. Companies can choose from a wide array of activities—from symposia to special events—which deliver worldwide recognition as a supporter of electrochemical and solid state research—and enhance ECS meetings.

#2 Associate your company with ECS

ECS meetings are the right place to exhibit! From visibility to credibility, exhibiting at ECS meetings is right for your organization. Benefit from the Society's powerful platform to meet major new customers and boost relationships with current customers from around the world.

#3 Access cutting-edge research

Our events offer exceptional and balanced scientific programs covering an extensive range of topics. Top scientists from around the world give you access to the latest research breakthroughs.

#4 Build new partnerships

Meeting poster sessions, coffee breaks, and exclusive social events deliver unparalleled networking opportunities and facilitate dialogue and collaboration between exhibitors and attendees.
